Friday 4th February 2022

Dear Parents and Carers,

You may have noticed that as a school we have increased our Twitter presence this week. We have found that Twitter is a great way to share with our school community the amazing achievements of our pupils. If you do not currently follow Lee Brigg Infant & Nursery School on Twitter our Twitter handle is @lee_brigg. Please follow our channel to receive regular updates from your child's class.

Parenthub

Mrs Dixon-Child has had a busy week ensuring that our Parenthub app is able to reach as many of our Parents and Carers as possible. If you have not yet subscribed to the app (which is free of charge) please do pop into the school office and Mrs Dixon-Child will do all she can to get you up and running!

Clergy Assembly

This week Reverend Barry held his final clergy assembly at Lee Brigg before moving on to a more central role for the Methodist Church. Reverend Barry introduced Reverend Naomi to our Lee Brigg family during his final clergy assembly. We look forward to working very closely with Reverend Naomi and cannot wait to hear all about Reverend Barry's new and exciting role. We would like to sincerely thank Reverend Barry for his guidance, support and prayers in his role as both Clergy and Governor (Academy Standards Committee) for our school.

Book Fair

Travelling Books will be hosting a book fair at Lee Brigg Infant & Nursery School from 11th February 2022. The fair will be open prior to the start of school and after school.

A flyer can be viewed using the following link: travelling-book-fairs-invitation-spring-2022-2111321.pdf (scholastic.co.uk)

As always, appointments will be allocated on a first come first served basis. Letters have been sent home this week to allow parents and carers to book an appointment with your child's class teacher. Please note each appointment is for ten minutes only. Should you feel that you require a longer appointment to discuss any specific concerns, we would ask that you speak to a member of staff to arrange.

School Milk

A reminder that entitlement to free school milk ends at the start of the term of your child's fifth birthday and continues for older children who qualify for income related free school meals.

Lee Brigg Infant & Nursery School offers parents and carers the opportunity to purchase milk for their child to drink during the school day should they be ineligible for free school milk. If you would like to know more about the scheme and how to register your child please click here.

After School Clubs

Next week (week commencing 7th February 2022) will be the final week of after school clubs for this half term.

Our school councillors have been busy surveying our pupils to find out which clubs they would like to participate in. We endeavour to provide a range of clubs for our children, which are specific to their interests. If you have any suggestions for after school clubs, or indeed have contacts who may like to provide an after school club at Lee Brigg Infant & Nursery School then please get in touch with Mrs Dixon-Child in the school office in the first instance.
